About us

Disability Sheffield is a charity run by and for disabled people. We have been promoting independent living for disabled people in Sheffield since 2003.

Accessible information has been identified by disabled people as one of the seven needs for independent living

Who can we help?

We aim to provide information to disabled people living or working in Sheffield, personal assistants and carers, families and friends of disabled people.

We also welcome enquiries from any individual or organisation looking for information about a disability issue including health and social care practitioners.

How can we help?

We aim to provide the information you require using carefully selected local and national information databases and our own factsheets. If we cannot help you we will put you in touch with an organisation that can.

Information is available in a range of formats to suit your personal requirements on request.

DIAL Network

We are a member of DIAL, an independent network of local disability information and advice services run by and for disabled people. Every year DIALs help over a quarter of a million disabled people.

Using our experience

Disability Sheffield provides information based on disabled people's own experience and knowledge.

Our disability information service is provided by staff and volunteers who have direct experience of disability themselves and understand the barriers that disabled people can face in accessing information.
